

A Little Lifetime Foundation

Formerly ISANDS - founded 1983

Confidentiality Policy

Personal information is defined as any information that may be used to identify an individual, including but not limited to: a person's name, address, contact information, age, sex.

Board members, volunteers and staff of A Little Lifetime Foundation are bound by ethical and legal codes to protect the confidentiality and privacy of parents and families in our service. It is our policy to protect and maintain the confidentiality of all information learned about parents, their family members and acquaintances in the course of providing services to them.

Confidential communications include conversations, reports, forms, correspondence, and computer generated communications with, about or involving in any way any service user of A Little Lifetime Foundation.

Information about individuals, whether on computer or on paper falls within the scope of the Data Protection Act and must comply with the data protection principles

All personal information will be stored in a locked filing cabinet or on a password protected computer. Board members, volunteers, staff and contractors should demonstrate professionalism, good judgement and care to avoid unauthorised or inadvertent disclosures of confidential information and should for example, refrain from leaving confidential information contained in documents or on computer screens in plain view.

Board members, volunteers, staff and contractors in A Little Lifetime Foundation will be advised of our confidentiality policy and will be required to sign up to it.

Appropriate disciplinary procedures will follow any breach of A Little Lifetime Foundation Confidentiality Policy.

Confidentiality Agreement

I _____ have read and agree to the terms of A Little Lifetime Foundation's Confidentiality Policy.

Signed _____

Date _____